

(prayed over by the elders) Prayer Requests 1/31/21

Marginized People

I. We Must Pray

- A. Prayer is a learned behavior.
- B. Prayer must be a practiced behavior.

II. We Must Believe God Will Answer

A. God, unlike the "bad judge," always answers His people's persistent prayers.

III. We Must Join God in His Response to Those in Need

- A. God works through His people to bring hope and encouragement to others.
- B. God listens to our prayers offered on behalf of others.

CONCLUSION

God hears the prayers of those who are in despair and marginalized and are often overlooked by those with power and authority. God answers them through the timely intervention of His followers.

APPLICATION

Who do we know to be struggling with despair and the effects of iniustice?

Ask God to guide you in helping to bring hope to those within your reach who are marginalized.
