

What does baptism have to do with our identity?

Introduction: Baptism is an outward sign of an inward transformation. It reveals that we have made a commitment to following Jesus no matter the cost. baptizō – properly, "submerge" (Souter); hence, baptize, to immerse (literally, "dip under"). 907 (baptizō) implies submersion ("immersion"), in contrast to 472 / antéxomai ("sprinkle").

I. What does Jesus say about baptism?

He asks John to baptize Him to fulfill all righteousness. Matthew 3:13-17
 He tells the Apostles to make disciples and baptize them. Matthew 28:18-20

II. How am I identifying with Jesus?

We identify with His death on the cross. Rom 6:6-7
 We identify with His burial in the tomb. Rom 6:3-4
 We identify with His resurrection. Rom 6:4-5

Alive in Christ! Colossians 2:6-15 NIV

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ. For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, and in Christ you have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every power and authority. In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not performed by human hands. Your whole self ruled by the flesh was put off when you were circumcised by Christ, having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through your faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross
