

Gods at War

The Throne of your heart (This series is based off of Kyle Idleman’s book “Gods at War”)

Introduction- Today we will start a journey together examining what idolatry is and how it may be affecting us without our even knowing it.

I. Idolatry is the issue. Ex 20:2-6

You shall have no other Gods before me. V. 3
The Egyptians had a lot of gods.
"Before me" doesn't mean ahead of me but in my presence.
We have a lot of god's/idols.

You shall not make for yourselves an idol. V. 4
The golden calf. Ex 32 & Ps 106:19-20
DIY idolatry. Anything in the world can be hammered into an idol and therefore can be a false god, if misplaced in the top spot of our affections.

II. The battle ground of the gods

The heart is the key-personality, motives, emotions, and will.
Prov 4:23

Your heart reflects your true identity. Prov 27:19

We need a heart check. Mat 15:8

*Conclusion- Spiritual Arteriogram-Let’s check out our heart health.
What disappoints you? “Disproportionate disappointment reveals that we have placed intense hope and longing in something other than God”. “Have you ever thought that our disappointments are God’s way of reminding us that there are idols in our lives that must be dealt with?”*

What worries you? The fear of loss of a person, job, talent, etc... if these thoughts keep you up at night you may have made an idol out of one of these things.

A Spiritual Arteriogram

Journal your answers to these questions. Take time to pray and reflect.

- What are your greatest disappointments?
- What do you complain about the most? (consider asking someone close to you)
- What does your credit card/bank statement say about you?
- What worries you or keeps you up at night?
- Where do you go when you're hurting?
- What infuriates you?
- What are your aspirations? What are your underlying motivations?
