~ Highlights ~

AWANA is looking for a few people who would like to serve by working with children. AWANA runs on Sunday nights from 5:30 -7 and leaders report at 5. You can look forward to a dinner upon arrival and lots of fun and laughter during the night. This is an opportunity to reach children and tell them about the love of Christ. Please see Commander Tatum or Pastor Steve if you are interested. AWANA starts on September 11th and will go to the end of April.

The Mission & Outreach Team is looking to compile a list of individuals who are willing to share their talents, assisting in projects and needs that arise in our community. We are not asking you to commit to every project that arises. Our goal is to have a pool of people with various abilities so when we do receive requests for help, Mission & Outreach knows who to contact. Any and all project requests will be vetted to be sure that the request isn't bigger than what we can do. Then again, if God wants us to be there, nothing is too big for Him! Please consider adding your name to the clipboard at the welcome table. If you have any questions, please speak with Bill Buck. You know Bill, he is the enormous one who sits quietly at bonfires and everyone thinks he has left!

Do you desire to be a part of a LIFE-changing experience? Expectations Women's Center: both men and women are needed to serve as advocates and receptionists to minister to women and men facing pregnancy decisions and the parenthood journey. A 7 week volunteer training begins Thursdays September 15, 22, 29, Oct 6, 13 and 2 Saturdays Sept 24th and Oct 1st. Cost of training materials is $35. (Scholarships available). For more information see Carol Fish or call Becky at 570.321.8254 ext.104. Flyers are on the table in foyer.

If you haven't received an Insulated Lunch Bag from the Welcome Team, please see Duane or Tracey Buffington before or after any service (One per family please).

Second offering for August will be for the Bota family that lost everything in a fire.

Piercing Word will present 'James' on Aug 21 during our morning service. Invite your family and friends for this special performance.
